

(2) Looking for a job

Hello Work

The public employment security office (“Hello Work”) is a national organization that offers employment consultation and introduces people to jobs free of charge.

You can search for a job among the job openings across the country on the Hello Work website or at any Hello Work office.

When you visit a Hello Work office to register as a jobseeker, please bring both your passport and residence card or special permanent resident certificate with you so that they can check your residence status and period of stay.
